

Clarus Group Supports Matt Newman and Head for the Cure

We are thrilled to support our friend Matt Newman and Team Newmanium in the 2019 Broad Street Philly Run. Matt has been our partner at TransAmerica for more than 10 years and more recently he's taken on the role of author, motivational speaker, cancer survivor and official ambassador for Head for the Cure.

Matt and his wife Rebecca have run the Broad Street run for years. In fact, his cancer diagnosis came just eight days after they ran the race in 2013. Matt knew his wife and 3 young children were counting on him to beat cancer and he has. Now, he is using his passion, energy and inspiring story to raise money for a great organization. We are so excited to support him this year!

You can read more about Matt's story here: Starting at the Finish Line

Head for the Cure's mission is to raise awareness and funding to inspire hope for the community of brain cancer patients, their families, friends, caregivers and other supporters, while celebrating their courage, spirit and energy.

Good luck Matt!
